

Dear Friends,

My second year working with the Faith Mission has passed very quickly, reminding me again that the time is short: soon, “the night cometh, when no man can work” [John 9:4]. We need passion and vision, wisdom, boldness and strength as we seek to do the work that the Lord has sent us to do; grateful thanks for your continuing prayers for us.

These past weeks have been most encouraging: we knew the Lord's help as we shared in various meetings for Christians, and there have been good opportunities during both gospel missions that Tim and I have conducted. The children's clubs in Hopeman and Burghead were particular times of encouragement, when a good number of very keen children attended, many of whom were unfamiliar with the 'well known' Bible lessons we taught them. They seemed to be taking in the truth; many learned the scripture memory verses; and those who did not have a Bible were given a copy supplied by the 'Gideons'. Please pray for salvation among these boys and girls, and that the Lord would lay it upon the hearts of local believers to start a midweek Bible club for these children: very few attend Sunday School (often because they are taking part in sport on Sundays), but there appeared to be a real interest among them to come back to learn more.

Again this quarter, we have had some good opportunities to share the gospel in door-to-door visitation: please remember Kerry, Pauline and Margaret in particular, all of whom were seeking to know the truth.

Alongside Donnie and Catherine, Tim and I will also have the help of three students from the Faith Mission Bible College for our summer outreach programme: Naomi Fox, from Lurgan, will work in the Highlands until the end of camps; Ruth McGarvey, from Cookstown, and Lisa Ross, from Edinburgh, will be working with us throughout the summer. Please pray that we would know unity as a team.

Much of our evangelism this summer will focus on children and young people. As well as the camps, we will be holding two children's clubs: the first is in the village of Coigach (around 45 minutes north-west of Ullapool), and the second will be in Ullapool itself. The last weekend before we take our summer break, we will be involved in street outreach and open-air evangelism in Muir of Ord, a small town around ten miles from Inverness. Pray that the Lord would save the souls of children, and take them back into their homes, schools and neighbourhoods to witness for Christ.

As yet, I am unsure where the mission will place me next Autumn, but am trusting the Lord will put me where He wants me to be. Thank you to all of the Lord's people who have supported the work here in the Highlands during the past year.

*Love in Christ,
John*
